Introduction

What does it take to succeed as a company director??

Board of Directors plays a vital part in meeting key business objectives of a company that presents unique responsibilities, dynamics, risks, and opportunities and also calls for a distinctive set of skills. So the Board of Directors too require training and development in order to update themselves and take the best decisions and be most effective for the company.

This program is meant to empower and equip the Board of directors with skills and attitudes required to perform their challenging tasks and play their role in a transparent, objective and ethical manner as per the best corporate governance practices.

The program is also intended for early stage companies to learn about the considerations to keep in view while appointing a director.

Key takeaways from the event:

- Best practices for the directors and maximize your contribution as a board director
- Role and responsibility of a director
- Dos and don'ts for participating in the board meeting
- Liability and statutory codes of conduct
- Conflict resolution at the board of directors
- Considerations for appointing a director
